Actively searching for ladies of grace and style.

What is Reenacting?

Reenacting's most basic description is the attempt to recreate the people, events and life-styles of the military and civilians during the period of the American Civil War.

Civil War Reenacting is not only popular in the U.S.

but can be found in Canada, England, France and Germany as well.

1st USSS Co. C & Ladies of the Lily
New Years Ball 2003

Our particular organization is currently comprised of 10–15 women who portray a variety of impressions in association with the 1st Regiment of United States Sharpshooters Company C. We are the Friends, Wives, Mothers, and Daughters of 1st USSS Co. C. Our unit has members in both Illinois and Wisconsin

All members of the unit are veterans of the hobby with several years of experience and research.

Within our unit we have many talented people who are able to help design and make some of the items that we use. We are a family oriented unit that still remembers that this is a hobby.

Ladies of the Lily's Focus

Our primary focus is EDUCATION. WE want to show the many facets of the women of the American Civil War:

Wonderful

Original

Motherly

Able

Noble

Vivandier
Belvidere, IL

School Talk
Decatur, IL

Women of the American Civil War were keepers of the home fires and builders of the future.

Women—Strong & Loving

Ladies of the Lily continually research all activities of the women from the 1860's in an effort to better understand their life-styles, decisions, strength, courage and caring.
